Hello Chetan,

It gives us immense pleasure to welcome you to the Ice Mortgage Technology Family.

Thanks for spending time with our team during your interviews at Ellie Mae. The team was super happy to meet you and was impressed with your background, your experience and the skill sets you bring to the table. We are super excited to extend you an offer of employment in the position of Service Operations, Assistant Manager with the starting date of 11th May 2021.

At Ice Mortgage Technology, we've built a team of incredibly talented and ambitious people who love to challenge the status quo and are working towards building intelligent tools that transform the way mortgage lenders, investors and services work.

Find attached the offer letter with all the details . I hope you find the details in line with your discussions with our team and will accept our offer at your earliest convenience & also fill the attached joining form and share it with us.

Please do not hesitate to call me in case if you have any questions. I can be reached at our emails / cell phones
